

Queen's University Belfast Students' Union

Full-Time Student Officer Report

Role: Student Officer Accessible Education

Name: Mórrigan McEvoy

Period Covered by Report: December 2025 – January 2026

Campaign/Activity/Project	Action
International Students' Day Panel on Closing the Awarding Gap	Was a panel member on the panel and spoke about the importance of the role of a university tutor, assimilating into a new university and the generalisation of international students as being all the same
White Ribbon Training	Completed White Ribbon Training and received certification
Annual Fund Success	Received full money applied for for litter picking equipment and received partial funding for sustainability tours
World AIDS Day	Handed out 100 free ribbons to raise awareness about World AIDS Day
Student Safety Event	Attended the University's Student Safety Event in the Students' Union foyer
Parents and Carers Event	Attended the first parents and carers event in the Students' Union and participated in discussions with relevant students about the struggles they face along with their studies
Hosted two Sighted Guiding training sessions with Guide Dogs	The training involves education on the different types of eye diseases, how to interact with people with visual impairments and how to guide them in a public place
Medical Bystander Training	Attended the medical bystander training for medical students to learn about how their sessions are run and how they could be combined/incorporated/influence the Green Dot Training
LawPod Podcast	Along with Professor Judy Williams, Pro-Vice Chancellor for education and Students, was a guest speaker on the LawPod podcast to discuss artificial intelligence and how it impacts education in a university setting
Part-Time Officer from London School of Economics	Met with a PTO from LSE to discuss the differences and similarities between our SUs
Queen's Global Leadership Programme Panel	Was a panel member at the Queen's Global Leadership Programme event where sustainability at Queen's and within the SU was the topic of discussion

New Academic Lead for LGBTQIA+ and Disability	Met with Neil Reid and discussed our respective plans for the months ahead- most notably, collaborating on the rainbow crossing initiative