

Queen's University Belfast Students' Union

Full-Time Student Officer Report

Role: Student Officer Equality and Diversity

Name: Sajid Khan

Period: January

Introduction: As Campaigns and Engagement Student Officer, my role is divided between assisting the development of Union campaign strategies and coordinating student development in Clubs and Societies, Volunteering, Enterprise and RAG. As all officers do, I represent and advocate for students in their academic life.

Activity	Description
Russell Group Students' Union Conference	QSU hosted the second meeting of RGSU for this academic year. It was good. Shared best practice
Clubs and Societies Committee	C&S committee met and heard proposals from new societies, all were recommended, and a report was given at the January meeting of council.
Election recruitment	The SO team were encouraging people to run in the March student leader elections, this was for Full-time officer, Association chairs, School and Faculty reps. We did tailored emails, shared social media within our network and did lecture shoutouts to spread awareness. We also took part in an election briefing session, in which we spoke to potential interested candidates about the job and what they can expect in an SU election.
Conduct and AO committees	I attended Conduct Committees as the student panel member and also supported a student at an Academic Offences Committee.
Extraordinary Meeting of Senate and PFRC	SO President and I, attended the extraordinary meeting of senate and PFRC (Planning, Finances and Resources Committee). This meeting was too approve the new GIFT city campus in India. Trade Union reps and ourselves raised concerns around staffing, the difficulty of meeting the right staff to student ratio and the cost that can incur as the project scales up. We emphasised the importance of continuing to prioritise Belfast and the student experience here.
